Subject

Letters Nos 471 and 472 & 11.9 from the Secretary, Insurance Comm submitting for the orders of Governmen r. Nos 463 and 454 & 29th and 19th March, containing the opinions of the Commi members and the President, regarding exemption from insurance of Mr. A. J and one Woothiah, Forest Ranger.

Note

The grounds urged by both for exem from Insurance are the same i.e. that have already insured their lives in a private and therefore cannot afford to insure i Govt also.

In the case of Mr Grieve, 4 of the Committee members i.e, Dr Benson, Mess E. R. Subrayer, L. Anantasami Rao and A. Rangaswami Iyengar, are in favor of gra exemption. Mr Scott is also ~~—~~ for exempt but puts the question, if he is to be exempt from all further insurances also. Mr Bh is for exempting from fire as well as fu insurances. The President and Mr Purniah not for exempting, but leave the question the decision of Government.

In the case of Woothiah, 5 of the i.e, Dr Benson, Messrs Scott, Subrayer, Bha and Anantasami Rao are not for granting e exemption, while Messrs Prowse and Rangasawamy Iyengar are of opinion that this case may be dealt with similarly to that of Mr Ojive. The President is not at all in favor of exempting, and would create an inconvenient precedent.

Although the majority of the members are for exempting Mr Ojive, while against exempting Marshall, it is submitted that it is not clear how one can be exempted and the other not, both occupying the same place. The President is not for exemption in both cases.

Both claim exemption under Rule 6 of the Insurance Rules.

There have been 2 cases of exemption previously viz in the case of Mr Benham and Miss Watkins.

Miss Vokins is an unmarried lady & Mr. Benham somewhat advanced in age. The two cases now before Govt are apparently different.

Draft an order to say that Govt do not consider it necessary that there are any exceptional cases justifying an exemption.

The draft was submd to the Dewan, who directed that Mr. Grieve might be asked to state, confidentially if he liked, whether his insurance Amount in the private company in which he ~~says~~ said he had insured, was for as much as is required under the Govt. rules and the period when the bonus would become due. Mr. Grieve was accordingly written to, regarding the above particulars. Now he sends a confidential letter in reply - (Please see Encls to his No 75 of 4.11.02 - Kept sealed).

As Mr. Grieve did not begin service here and had already insured himself elsewhere Perhaps he may be permitted to insure here only for the difference.

~~He does~~ Mr Grieve would reach his first increment on 1st Apl 1903. He may as he requests be allowed to insure from that date on 40 Rs premium only. A draft to this effect is submitted for approval.

The Dewan.

20/11/02

Dewan's order:

"Yes, if Govt can exempt under the rules"

Rule 6 says that insurance shall be compulsory on all such persons "unless Specially exempted" but does not say anything about partial exemption as in this case. I have no doubt that the whole includes the part in this matter. But if the matter is not so viewed, Govt cannot grant such partial exemption as Mr Grieve asks for. Perhaps the 2nd Counsellor's opinion may be taken (as he is the President of the Insurance Committee) or the matter referred again to the Committee.

SC No 1

To

The Secretary to Government
General & Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward for the consideration of the Government an application from Mr A J Grieve, recently entertained as Professor of English Language and Literature, for exemption from State life Insurance on the ground that his life has already been insured elsewhere for a number of years.

I beg to recommend that, as the primary object of State life Insurance is thereby effected in his case the exemption requested may be be kindly granted.

To

The Secretary to Government
General & Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that Government may be pleased to specially exempt me from the operation of the rules regarding State Insurance.

I ask this on the ground that I have been for some years insured, and the premium on my present policy is as much as I can conveniently deduct from my income for a charge of this kind.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
A. J. Grieve.
